CHANGES IN THE EIGHTH WARD HOUSE COMPANY.—Chief Eccles, of the Fire Department, set his little gullion in operation again yesterday, and made some changes in the Eighth Ward House Company. Robert Arkin, an extramural, was promoted to the Captain, vice Henry Metz, removed. Daniel Smith and Charles C. Hays, extramural, were removed, and the following appointed: Thomas P. Rose, James Atwell and Paul Heller.

TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE.—The following deed in fee, transferring real estate, was submitted to record in the office of the Clerk of the County Court, yesterday:

Deed made Feb. 7, 1878, by George P. Fulmer and wife to Wm. T. Krumme, for part of lot No. 6 in the town of Fulton, fronting 42 feet on the south side of the National Road, adjoining Fulmer's store room on said road, together with all the buildings and improvements thereon; $3,500.

A WORD FOR THE TACK.—The new polefence in this city, so far, has made a very favorable impression upon our citizens. Some misgivings were entertained at the outset of the efficacy of the fence, on account of the youth of two or three of the fences, but all have now acquired themselves with credit and have earned much praise. They bear themselves with becoming dignity, and are vigilant and careful officers. We trust they may continue to give us help, and they will merit the confidence and respect of all good citizens.

NAIL CITY MASQUERADE.—The Nail City Club gave a merry masquerade, last night, at their boat house, on the South River. There was a large crowd present, and there always is at the balls given by the club. The weather was delightful, the crowd joyous, the managers in smiles, and everything passed off smoothly and well. As the post has said, or might have said, it was a success.

VIEWER'S ORCHESTRA.—The Viewers' orchestra furnished the dulcet strains by which the feet of the dancers were guided over the floor. The festivities were kept up until nearly morn-

Brief Mention.

SPRING is Marching this way.

One died in fee and one died of trust recorded yesterday.

CONVICTS.—Committees on Lights and Markets are called to meet at the city building to-night.

The Germania Singing Society is getting ready to celebrate its tenth anniversary on the 19th inst.

The remains of W. E. Boggs will arrive at Cadiz, Ohio, to-day, and the funeral will take place on Monday.

The beautiful moonlight nights with which we have been favored recently have been greatly enjoyed.

The Masonic fraternity of Bridgeport give a social and support their hall on Friday evening of next week.

The temperance folks are preparing to whoop up things lively at their anniversary jubilee next Wednesday night.

OFFICER MILLER yesterday afternoon arrested Bill Rodgers, in the First Ward, for drunkenness. Bill slept in the lockup last night.

That grist at the police court yesterday morning turned over seven unfortunate and two to Jailor Jolly.

The Starlight Dancing Club gave a pleasant hop, last night, at Goetz's Hall, on the South Side. Cockayne's orchestra furnished the music.

The Nail City Brewing Company finished their ice harvest yesterday, having filled up all of their available space with the congelated fluid.

The Ladies' Social Union of the Fourth Street M. E. Church held their regular monthly social in the lecture room of their Church Tuesday evening next.

CHIEF SWEENEY, of the police, has instructed his officers to rigidly enforce the ordinance prohibiting smoking in the Second Ward Market during market hours.

The Council Committee on Accounts met at the city building last night, in regular monthly session, to prepare their report for presentation to Council next Tuesday evening.

One of the largest and finest dancing parties of the season took place at the residence of Mr. Noah Hinton, on Zane street, Island, last night. Mayor's orchestra furnished the music.

The joint special investigation committee, appointed by Council to study and report on the gas affairs of the city, will hold another session this evening.

THERE has been some talk lately among the veterans of the B. & O. Railroad riots of a sham battle on Decoration Day. So far, we understand, there has been no definite action taken in the matter.

The musical friends of the Episcopal Mission Sabbath School in South Wheeling are making arrangements to give a concert for the benefit of the school, at Westwood's Hall, next Thursday night.

ARRANGEMENTS will be made for a special car for the accommodation of those of our citizens who desire to attend the funeral of the late W. E. Boggs at Cadiz, on Monday. Due notice will be given of the time of departure, and other particulars.

It is that sad period of the year when the boys skip around the corners, and dodge about in all of the out of the way places, and feel very lonely and very uncertain of the future, and wish they had tackled that seductive but wicked game known as faro. The Grand Jury meets on Monday.

The pedestrian lunacy has struck Wheeling. It is suggested that Kemple, the "komik" lunatic, might be induced to come to this city, if the Chancellor would consent to undertake to walk one hundred quarter yards in one hundred consecutive minutes, say for the benefit of the temperance cause, some enthusiasm might be created, and muscular feats requiring great exertion.

CRIMINAL TAXES.—Complaints that tax-payers are backward about coming forward, and in consequence their gets are not paid as promptly as could be wished. A Deputy Collector, after being out an entire day calling on tax-payers, cannot raise more than fifteen or twenty dollars. The opening of spring, however, will afford employment to many who are now idle, and better times are expected.

SHERIFF TINKLE gave a supper last night, at Robinson's Opera House Restaurant, to a number of his distinguished Democratic fellow-citizens. The gathering was one of political significance. The Democratic patriots, between their oysters and sherry, unanimously chose Hon. George Jeffers, of this city, as their candidate for Governor, and agreed that Col. Alex. Campbell, of Brooke, should succeed Col. Ben. Wilson as Congressman from this district.

"UNCLE DICK" Richardson, of the Seventh Ward, took a jaunt to Pittsburgh on Thursday morning, to make a brief visit to a brother-in-law, and to see the Register local forthwith announced in a unique sensational style that "Uncle Dick" had left home mysteriously, and that his friends, fearing foul play, were scouring the country for him. "Uncle Dick" replied to a brother-in-law, and the says he'll make it "precarious" for that reporter. The old man is able to take care of himself—make no mistake.

TWO GENTLEMEN OF BOSTON.—Last night Officer Bill Hays, who was working at the Opera House, was called to the aid of a couple of strangers who could give no account of themselves other than that they came from "Boston," and had no visible means of support, and intended to let their hindmost wheeling loose the sport of the wind in a black and white coat. The strongest sported a ring with an immense stone setting, which glittered in the moonlight like a Kohinoor diamond, and though none knew better than Officer Bill that all is not gold that glitters, he concluded they came with his province as a guardian of the night. So, having in mind the Scriptural injunction relative to entertaining angels unaware, Bill "collared" them both by the neck, and he very graphically expressed it, and tendered them the hospitality of the city, as presented by the oldest inhabitant, General Alexander Wallace. The ring was taken to police headquarters on suspicion of having unlawfully come into the city, and the ring was removed from the crowd and elicited much admiration. The value of the precious jewel was found to be beyond computation. Major Sweeney, whose superior judgment in such matters is beyond question, estimated the wholesale price of the article at fifty twenty-five cents per peck. What to do with such valuable property was the next question. A suggestion that it be deposited in the safe at the gas office for safe keeping was rejected, and the ring was taken to the safe, and by unanimous consent Major Sweeney was requested to take charge of the treasure until its ownership could be decided.

TEMPERANCE NOTES.—The South Side was specially favored last night, and Parker Hall never contained a finer audience or experienced a more interesting meeting. Rev. Ryan, of Grafton, was given charge of the meeting, opening it with impressive and appropriate religious exercises, and following in an eloquent and telling speech, full of pathos and point. Mr. Ryan is an aggressive speaker, plain and emphatic. Mr. G. W. Atkinson was held the closest, and for nearly an hour audience, dealing in arguments both strong and appealing. At the close of the meeting there were several signatures to the pledge.

MEETING at Mozart Hall to-night will be addressed by Mr. G. W. Atkinson.

A meeting of more than ordinary importance is announced for Otis's Hall on Sunday night.

REMEMBER THIS.

Not an ounce of the ingredients comprising Dr. C. McLean's Celebrated Liver Pills is ever permitted to enter the laboratory of a professional physician, and is analyzed by a professional chemist. Hence, their purity and never-failing excellence. None genuine without the signature of Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa.

RIGHTFUL ACCIDENT ON THE HEMPFIELD ROAD.—Alfred E. Snedker, lead conductor on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad in this city, came to his death in a frightful manner yesterday morning. Owing to the heavy grade on the Hempfield road, at this end of the line, it is customary to use a "helper," or additional engine, to assist trains leaving the city. The six o'clock A. M. train left as usual yesterday morning, and was assisted as far as Wood street by a "helper." Snedker went out with the engine, and when near Wood street went forward to the cowcatcher to uncouple the engine from the train. Shortly afterwards the engineer remarked to the fireman that he thought the engine had passed over some object, and asked if he had not felt the jar. The fireman looked back and saw the body lying on the track, whereupon the engine was stopped and the two men ran up where the remains lay, and recognized Snedker. It is the opinion of both the engineer and fireman that, while uncoupling the engine from the train, Snedker slipped off the cowcatcher and fell on the track immediately under the engine, which passed over him, mangle his body in a frightful manner.

The remains were removed to the dead house of the company, near the Belmont Mill, where they were suitably encoined, and subsequently removed to the residence of the deceased, at No. 8 Twentieth street.

Decided was about thirty-two years of age, and had been in the employ of the B. & O. Company for some six or seven years. He came to this city from West Alexander, Pa., and during his residence in Wheeling has been held in high esteem by his employers, as well as by the community at large, as an industrious and respectable man, and a good citizen. He leaves a wife and two children, in poor circumstances. The remains will probably be taken to West Alexander for interment.

The Courts.—Circuit Court.—Judge Meigs.—The Circuit Court was in session yesterday as usual.

The Court was engaged during the whole of the forenoon session in hearing the arguments in the Cockayne will case, which after argument was submitted to the Court.
